WICHITA, KS—David Gordon, CPA, Administrator of Hillside Medical Office, has been named President of the Kansas Medical Group Management Association (KMGMA) for 2004-05. Mr. Gordon assumed the presidency at the fall statewide conference held in Overland Park September 16-17, 2004. Terry Freeman, FACMPE, Vice President Management Operations of Medical Service Corporation, was named president-elect. Other officers are Bradley Deutsch, Chief Financial Officer, Cancer Center of Kansas, PA, first vice-president; Michelle Meier, Administrator, Kansas Medical Clinic, PA, Topeka, KS, second vice-president; Karlen Jones, Practice Management Consultant, CompOne Services, Ltd., secretary; Susan Wade, President, Grene Vision Group, treasurer.

Founded in 1953, KMGMA represents a multitude of medical group practices throughout Kansas. According to Gordon, “the organization is a vital resource to medical practice administrators because of its educational programs and networking opportunities as well as providing important information concerning national and state issues affecting medical practices.” KMGMA is affiliated with Medical Group Management Association (MGMA), which is the oldest and largest organization representing medical group practices.
